TOGETHER, LET'S
MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

Life is too short to do mediocre work,
and definitely too short to build shitty things.

A business dictionary that contains unconventional business definitions. No fancy words or useless technical terms.

GIVING IT

RECEIVING IT

ENCOURAGING IT

Why question everything?
Because that's the difference between ordinary and extraordinary things.

GIVE AND RECEIVE FEEDBACK

BUILD, MEASURE, LEARN.

IF WE NEED TO,
WE'LL KNOCK DOWN A FEW WALLS.

WE ALWAYS HAVE 5 MINUTES.

EVERY OPINION COUNTS.

We don’t pretend to be someone we’re not...

THERE ARE NO SEA MONSTERS AND THE CAPE OF STORMS IS DOOMED TO BE PASSED WITHOUT FEAR.

If there is fear, something is wrong.
Even in the hardest times, you must suggest, share and throw ideas around until you get it right. To have a bad idea is better than losing a good one because you were afraid of speaking, afraid of not being right.

DO MORE WITH LESS

DONE NOW IS BETTER THAN PERFECT LATER

A good plan violently executed now is better than a perfect plan next week.

THE ANGRY VENTURES IS DONE BY MAKING IT!

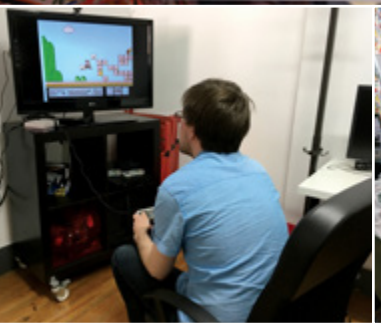
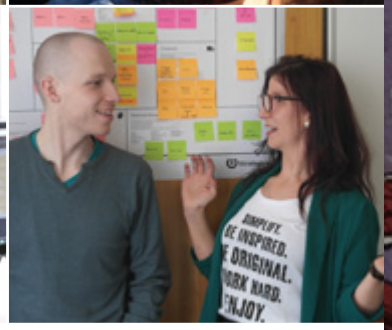
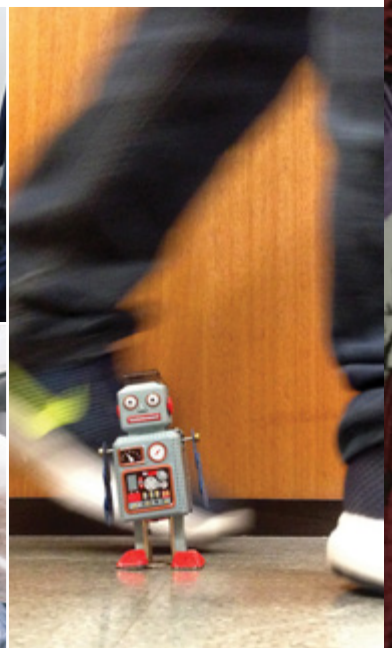
Don’t worry about finding what you aren’t seeking.





Business and money come and go

BUT PEOPLE STAY.



We create a bullshit-free zone where people love their job and working together.

ANGRY VENTURES

Angry Ventures is the consequence of people from diverse backgrounds coming together to idealize, craft and grow tech products.

I know what you're thinking. We must be just another digital agency, software house or consultancy company. Well, that's where you got it wrong. We're all of those and none of those.

DISCLAIMER

What you are currently reading is most likely out of date — since we used to iterate a lot. Sometimes it's just a comma, other times it's the whole strategy.

Despite this, we believe our essence and principles remain the same.

Well done.
Now we can start.
